Requirements:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Must be willing to be trained and adjusted.2. Must participate and function in all the sessions.3. Must exercise the spirit at all times.4. Must be willing to coordinate with the saints.
Registration Deadline:	June 17, 2023 (Saturday) Late registrations will not be accepted. See the instructions for registration below.
Registration Fee	P1650 (applies to both young people and serving ones) Includes meals, accommodation, and outline. See payment instructions below.

NEED FOR SERVING ONES:

1. The church/cluster/province should send AT LEAST 1 Full-time Serving One (SO) to accompany their trainees for the whole duration of the training. If the church sends young brother and sister trainees, it would be best to also send both brother and sister serving ones.
2. We recommend a ratio of 1 SO for every 10 young people to serve during the training. They must join the sessions and activities of the YP trainees and participate in the corporate living.

TRAINING GUIDELINES:

1. Training attire and appearance:
Brothers: White shirt or long-sleeved polo (moderate-sized collar) or white polo shirts, tucked in. Dark colored pants with belt (no jeans and shorts, no worldly patterns and loud prints). Shoes must be black leather shoes (rubber shoes are allowed only during exercise period and cleaning time).
Observe proper haircut. Hair color must be natural.

Sisters: Plain white / off-white blouse with collar (no ruffles, tucked in, and sleeves should cover at least half of the upper arm). Dark-colored skirts (should cover the knees by at least 3 inches when sitting). Black or brown closed leather shoes (heels no more than 2 inches high). Shorts, sleeveless shirts and sandals are not allowed outside the sleeping quarters.

2. Use of gadgets

Bringing unnecessary electronics devices such as laptops, music players, video players, tablets, portable gaming units, radios, etc. is greatly discouraged during the course of the training in order to avoid distractions. Using cameras (including camera function of smartphones) is not allowed during the meetings and inside the sleeping quarters.

Cellphones and gadgets will be collected by the SO's at the start of the training and deposited for safe-keeping, and will be returned after the training. Should emergencies arise during the training, parents and guardians may contact the SO's present in the training locations.

3. Things to bring:

- Hard copy of The Holy Word for Morning Revival
- Hard copies of the Bible and Hymns
- Mystery of Human Life
- Pen and notebook
- Water bottle/Tumbler
- Blanket
- Facemasks and hand sanitizers
- Personal necessities (e.g., toiletries)
- Personal medication (if applicable)
- Sufficient clothing for the whole duration of the training
- We advise the young people NOT to bring jewelries and excessive cash, and to take care of their own belongings. The training will not be responsible for the loss of any item.

4. Reminders:

- Everyone is expected to always exercise their spirit. Prayer should be done at the beginning of every activity, especially during sessions.
- All YP trainees are expected to strictly follow rules and regulations of the training.
- All YP trainees are required to be punctual in all the schedules. For sessions, they must exercise to be seated 5 minutes before the time.
- All YP trainees should give due respect in the Lord toward all fellow trainees and serving ones.
- Time and place of eating, usage of restrooms, and sleeping will be properly regulated. Should there be any concern regarding these matters, please fellowship with the coordinating brothers of the training before proceeding to register.
- Cleanliness, neatness, and orderliness should be exercised in all matters at all times.
- All trainees must observe proper separation from the opposite sex. Brothers and sisters are not allowed to engage in loose contact nor have any form of communication unless for coordination purposes in order to comply with the training activities. Courtship or any kind of action motivated by ulterior intentions is strictly not allowed.
- Violation against any of the rules and regulations will be properly recorded and attended to accordingly.
- All young people are expected to be present in all the sessions and activities, and complete the entire 13 days of the training course.
- The training has the right to dismiss any trainee who refuses to abide by the rules of the training, or is unwilling to be regulated and corrected.
- For any concerns and possible issues, the serving ones in the training are always available to listen and assist. If there are problems identified before the start of the training, please contact the coordinating brothers.
